

What would you like to learn?

FSU, through our ULF Project NI, are offering our members the opportunity to go further in your career with a Future Learn course.

Future Learn courses are available online at www.futurelearn.com and are from top universities and specialist providers. These courses are made available through The Open University, and can lead to qualifications such as the CMI Level 5 Award in Management and Leadership.

Courses are 12 hours in duration and you will have to complete 3 hours per week over a 4 week period. You will have up to 6 weeks to complete the course of your choice.

Courses that can support your career development include:

Business Courses

- Effective Communication
- Customer Engagement
- Project Management
- How to Succeed in the Global Workplace

Digital Skills Courses

- Digital Skills: Social Media
- Digital Skills: Grow Your Career

Management & Leadership

- Leading a Team
- Leading and Managing People-Centred Change
- Growing as a Manager
- Well-being and Welfare at Work

How it works:

If you are interested in completing one of these courses, contact Zara in FSU with details of the course you would like to take. You will then join the online course for free and once you have completed the course, contact FSU to discuss how to upgrade to receive a Certificate of Achievement from Future Learn.

Business and management courses that may be of interest to you can be found here:
<https://www.futurelearn.com/courses/categories/business-and-management-courses>

Once you have completed a course with Future Learn you may have the option to continue on to complete a program of study that can lead to a certified qualification.

More information on study programs and how they work can be found here:
